November 15, 2026

Theme: Love isn't love unless you give it away. God invests his love in us, trusting that we will invest it in others. Left to ourselves, we would not dare to give such gifts. But God has made us his people, filled with power to risk, to build, to give, to triumph.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

World Day of the Poor

"The Lord is the refuge of the poor" (Psalm 14:6)

Today, the Church observes the 10th World Day of the Poor. In his message, Pope Leo XIV invites us to see the poor not simply as people in need of help, but as our brothers and sisters who remind us of what truly matters and of the importance of trusting in God. He also challenges every Christian community to ask: "Are we a sign of a God who is a refuge for the poor?"

As we hear the Parable of the Talents, let us reflect on how we can use the gifts God has given us to welcome and support those who are forgotten, lonely, or struggling in our own community.

May our parish be a place of compassion and refuge, where everyone feels welcomed, valued, and at home.

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities." – Matthew 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, to use them wisely, and to be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us. God asks us to be generous with all our gifts, especially the one that means the most to you.

Bulletin Reflection

1st Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; 2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares the parable of the talents, reminding us that God has blessed each of us with unique gifts and calls us to use them faithfully. What matters is not how much we have, but how generously we share what has been entrusted to us. The woman in Proverbs shows us the beauty of using our gifts with compassion and care for others. May we remain open to God's call, recognizing the blessings in our own lives and seeking ways to use them to bring hope and goodness to those around us.

Prayer of Intercession

For all members of our community, that we may follow Christ's example by sharing our gifts generously and serving others with humility, kindness, and compassion. We pray to the Lord.

RCSD Strategic Priorities for 2026-2029

Listening is important. When we asked for insight, our communities shared their thoughts on the direction RCSD should take and where we should continue to build on our strengths. Six clear areas of focus emerged from that feedback: strengthening our Catholic identity, inspiring excellence in learning, fostering belonging and well-being, advancing Truth & Reconciliation, supporting student success, and building strong partnerships. These six areas form our strategic priorities for the next three years. You can learn more at www.rcsd.ca/strategic-plan
