The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

This Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King, marking the end of our liturgical year. Today's Gospel reminds us that the kingdom of Jesus is not about power, wealth, or earthly greatness, but about love, compassion, and service. Jesus teaches us that we encounter Him in the people around us, especially those who are hungry, lonely, sick, forgotten, or in need. Every small act of kindness, every gesture of generosity, and every moment of compassion becomes an opportunity to serve Christ Himself. As we celebrate Jesus as King of the Universe, let us reflect on how we welcome Him into our daily lives through the way we treat and care for one another.

May Christ our King guide our hearts, so that through our love and service to others, we may help make His kingdom of peace, mercy, and compassion present in our community.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially through the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains are available to visit patients and families for spiritual support. To request a visit, call:

General Hospital: 306-519-1405
Pasqua Hospital: 306-519-1380
Wascana Rehab Centre: 306-530-6511

If you're admitted through the ER, you may not be asked about spiritual care, so please call the number above or notify your parish. Also, let your parish know if you've been admitted to the hospital.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"…whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." - Matthew 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.

Archbishop's Appeal November 22

Bulletin Reflection

1st Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17; 2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28; Gospel: Matthew 25:31

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that our love for God is shown through the way we care for one another. When we welcome the stranger, serve those in need, and offer compassion to others, we are serving Christ Himself. The prophet Ezekiel shares the image of God as a loving shepherd who seeks out, gathers, and cares for His people. We are called to reflect that same care and compassion in our own lives. Through our prayers, actions, and generosity, we help bring God's love to those around us. The Archbishop's Appeal is one way we can respond to this call, supporting ministries that serve the vulnerable, strengthen our communities of faith, and share the hope of Christ with others. Thank you for the many ways you help care for God's people and build His Kingdom.

Prayer of Intercession

For all of us, that we may recognize Christ in those who are hungry, lonely, or in need, and respond with compassionate hearts through acts of kindness, service, and generosity. May our support of the Archbishop's Appeal help extend God's loving care to others. We pray to the Lord.

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.
