Offering of the Mass

 By virtue of the “communion of saints,” the Church commends the dead to God’s mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

St. Thérèse

St. Thérèse of Lisieux was a Carmelite nun whose service to her order, although seemingly unremarkable, was later recognized for its spiritual accomplishments. She is a patron saint of missionaries, florists, pilots and priests. She is also invoked on behalf of the sick. She was canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1925, and was named a Doctor of the Church by Pope John Paul II in 1997. St. Therese is the youngest person to be designated a Doctor of the Church, and is one of only four women.

St. Thérèse said: “Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God.”

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs. To receive a visit from a chaplain, call:

- General Hospital – 306-519-1405
- Pasqua Hospital – 306-519-1380
- Wascana Rehab Centre – 306-530-6511

If you are admitted through the emergency room, you may not be asked about spiritual care, so please call the number above or notify your parish. Please also let your parish know if you’ve been admitted to the hospital.

Third Sunday in Ordinary time

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him." Matthew 4:22
Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. In gratitude to God, we should give our first and best of everything to Him: our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Our parish offers a special Children's Liturgy of the Word designed to help young children better understand and participate in the Scripture readings during Mass.

Following the opening prayer, children are invited to a separate space for age-appropriate prayer, music, and reflection. They rejoin the assembly during the offertory hymn.

We warmly invite volunteers to support this meaningful ministry. If you enjoy working with children and are able to assist at one Mass per month, please sign up on the sheet at the back of the church or speak with Father Jake for more information.

Your time and dedication help nurture the faith of our youngest parishioners — thank you for being part of this important ministry.

CWL Meeting Invitation

All CWL members are invited to join us for our meeting on Thursday, January 29th, at 5:00 PM in the Parish Auditorium.

Come enjoy a time of fellowship with light refreshments and good company.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Prayer Ministry

Please pray for the needs of the sick of our parish, the homebound, and those who are alone and/or afraid to go out. Pray especially for the repose of the souls of Fr. Norm Marcotte, Fr. Marcel George and Rev. Kevin Lynch, OFM.

Pray for: Annie Dormuth, Jose Estioco, Agnes Fahlman, Shelly Joubert, Don Morrell, Lima Perris, Anthony & Louise Wingerter, Judy Klenk, Marg Benz, Chris & Ken Fahlman, Fr. Lorne Crozon, and Fr. Peter Pham.

We Have Seen a Great Light

On this Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, we joyfully proclaim that we have seen a great light. This light is Christ Himself, who comes into the darkness of our world and into the uncertainties of our own lives. His presence brings hope, guidance, and the promise that darkness does not have the final word.

The light of Christ clears our vision and helps us truly see the loving Father at work in our lives. It invites us to look beyond fear and confusion and to recognize God's faithful care and mercy. With this renewed vision, we begin to understand who God is and who we are called to be as His beloved children.

As we welcome this light, we are invited to trust in the life-giving promises that flow from it. Christ calls us to turn away from whatever keeps us in darkness and to follow Him with faith and courage. Walking in His light, our lives are transformed, and we become signs of hope for others.

Did you know that there is a Secular Carmelite (OCDS) Community in Saskatchewan?

St Teresa Margaret of the Sacred Heart and St Joseph Community is located in Saskatchewan with monthly meetings held in person and virtually.

If you feel called to the Carmelite Spirituality please check out the OCDS Canada website and for more information about the community in Saskatchewan please contact Paulette Sturgeon at \(p5sturgeon@hotmail.com\) (306)631-0654 or Gwen.herman0@gmail.com (306)581-4181.

Please join the Archdiocesan Social Justice Commission for an afternoon Lenten Scripture Reflection and Sharing in:

Esterhazy: Sat, Feb 21, from 11:00-2:30

Estevan: Sat, Feb 28, from 11:00-2:30

Regina: Sat, Mar 21, from 11:00-2:30

Swift Current: Mar 28, from 11:00-2:30.

This will be a time for inspiration: to reflect on scripture, to listen to the Holy Spirit, and to renew our Christian faith through action. The Social Justice Commission will guide those gathered, which we hope is you, to deepen our sense of God's justice, our call to do charity, and to think critically about how we love our neighbours. We will have a small lunch (soup and sandwiches). A silver dollar collection will be held to raise funds for a donation to Development and Peace – Caritas Canada. Love is our call, and justice is love in action! To register, please scan the QR Code below:
