Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

Season of Creation 2026
Living Water

This year we will be guided by the vision of the prophet Ezekiel (47:1–12): a river flowing from the temple of God, which grows without stopping and brings life where everything seems barren. Water heals, restores, and makes creation flourish. But it also challenges us: to recognize ecological damage, to embrace our interconnectedness, and to immerse ourselves in the responsibility of caring for and restoring our Common Home.

Religious leaders from around the world invite us to discover the Season of Creation 2026: Living Water and to join them on this journey of faith and action.

May this Season of Creation be a path toward the healing of the Earth, where human well-being and the flourishing of creation can grow together.

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

November 1, 2026
31st Sunday in Ordinary Time (All Saints)

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

Bulletin Reflection

1st Reading: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 2nd Reading: 1 John 3:1-3; Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

Today we celebrate the Feast of All Saints, a reminder that holiness is not reserved for a select few, but is a calling shared by all of God's people. In the Beatitudes, Jesus offers a vision of what it means to live as a disciple—through humility, mercy, compassion, and a deep trust in God. The saints we honor today came from many different walks of life, but they shared a common desire to follow Christ and reflect His love in the world. The readings remind us that we are all children of God, called to grow in holiness and to live with hope as we journey toward His Kingdom.

Prayer of Intercession

For all of us, that we may follow the example of the saints by living lives of faith, compassion, and love, and that God may strengthen us in our journey toward holiness. We pray to the Lord.

Farmland Legacies Intentions

November 1 - All Saints Day

- May we live the beatitudes in our relationships with others and with our earth. We pray to the Lord.
- The church is the temple of God. Help us also reverence the earth as God's dwelling place. We pray to the Lord.

Pope's Monthly Prayer Intention - November 2026
