St. Thérèse

St. Thérèse of Lisieux is one of the most renowned saints of modern times and yet, surprisingly, there are some little-known details about her. “Thérèse” is not her first name. “Thérèse” is not even her middle name, but her third name — Marie-Françoise-Thérèse Martin.

Most photographs and statues depict Thérèse with dark brown hair, when in fact, she had luscious blonde curls and blue eyes. She had a pet spaniel dog named Tom. She enjoyed acting out biblical stories and saints’ lives with her sisters and cousins. She loved the sea and would visit it whenever possible.

A quote by Thérèse is: “To live in love is to sail forever, spreading seeds of joy and peace in hearts.”

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the “communion of saints,” the Church commends the dead to God’s mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church).

This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains are available to visit patients and families for spiritual support. To request a visit, call:

General Hospital: 306-519-1405

Pasqua Hospital: 306-519-1380

Wascana Rehab Centre: 306-530-6511

If you’re admitted through the ER, you may not be asked about spiritual care, so please call the number above or notify your parish. Also, let your parish know if you’ve been admitted to the hospital.

Stewardship Bulletin Bits - August

August 2, 2026 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus said to them, 'There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves'." – Matthew 14:16

This is what Jesus said right before he fed the five thousand men. How often do we really place our trust in Jesus when the situation looks grim? With Jesus, no gift is too small or insignificant when offered with love. But we have to do our part. We should trust that Jesus will provide all that we need. We need to believe that Jesus has a better plan in store for us.

August 9, 2026 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." – Matthew 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you responded immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen to how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

August 16, 2026 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable." – Romans 11:29

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan.
