Fourth Sunday of Lent

On the Fourth Sunday of Lent, also known as Laetare Sunday, the Church invites us to rejoice as we move closer to the celebration of Easter. In the midst of our Lenten journey, the readings remind us of God’s abundant mercy and the joy that comes from reconciliation and new life in Him.

As we continue to grow through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, may we open our hearts to God’s healing grace. Let this season renew our hope, strengthen our faith, and guide us to live more fully in the light of Christ as we prepare to celebrate the promise of the Resurrection.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs. To receive a visit from a chaplain, call:

- General Hospital – 306-519-1405
- Pasqua Hospital – 306-519-1380
- Wascana Rehab Centre – 306-530-6511

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the “communion of saints,” the Church commends the dead to God’s mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

If you are admitted through the emergency room, you may not be asked about spiritual care, so please call the number above or notify your parish. Please also let your parish know if you’ve been admitted to the hospital.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

“Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the heart.”
1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.

Development and Peace

God does not see people the way humans do. While people often judge by appearances, God looks at the heart and calls us to walk in the light. When Jesus restores the sight of a man born blind in the Gospel of John, it shows that true vision is not only about seeing with our eyes, but also about recognizing truth, justice, and the dignity of others.

Development and Peace — Caritas Canada invites you to open your eyes to injustice and the struggles of others. By supporting communities and grassroots movements in the Global South, the organization encourages solidarity, helping us all work together for a more just and compassionate world.
