27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 8TH, 2023

Theme: We human beings seek so many substitutes for God. We make partial truths into total ones; we give ourselves to pursuits that satisfy only briefly. The Lord is moved to love by our confusion. He wants only our salvation and he sends his Son to heal us.

Return to Vibrancy

Announcement:

Eighteen months before her death from tuberculosis on September 30th 1897, Thérèse experienced the darkening of her faith. Thérèse was not alone in suffering from spiritual insecurity and this affliction settled in for varying periods on more than a few occasions.

In spite of the darkening of her faith, she was content to endure her trial knowing it was vastly more important to be where and what God wanted her to be. For Thérèse, spiritual doubts were not stumbling blocks; she used them as stepping-stones. Thérèse, described her spiritual combat as a trial that God permitted her to undergo.

Saint Thérèse said: "The greatest honour God can do a soul is not give it much, but to ask much of it."

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf.

(Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses are requested through the parish office.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the corner stone...”

Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be “rejected” by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

Archbishop's Appeal

ARCHDIOCESE OF Regina

In today's readings, we hear the striking parallel between the prophet Isaiah and the parable of the landowner's vineyard. Isaiah tells us that it was the house of Israel that was to be the fertile soil for the welcoming of the Messiah, but out of hardness of heart, they did not accept him. Jesus explains that when the landowner leases his land to other tenants, it is to be understood as a sharing in the kingdom of God, since God gives us everything. So, it is our mission to be thankful for the gifts that God has given us and to be generous with others so as to produce good fruit. This weekend is Thanksgiving, a special time to contemplate how to show our gratefulness. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ. Our God also us to share the goods of the earth with all people. Please consider donating to the Archbishop's Appeal to help bring awareness to the social justice issues affecting our Archdiocese.

LESSON THIRTY-ONE

How is Jesus different from the founders of other religions?

Videos:

Catechism Text: CCC nos. 469 & 843

Sacred Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15.12, John 1.1, Luke 2.52

Pope Francis: God has allowed there to be different religions in the world ...this reality of many religions... emerge from the culture, but they always look toward heaven and God (April 3, 2019).

FAQ: What effect does the Catechism have on Church life?

The Catechism is an historic document that Pope John Paul II considered one of the most outstanding achievements of his pontificate. While its effects can be felt in every area of Church life, they are most profoundly felt in that dimension of the Church's mission, which is explicitly catechetical. The Catechism continues to encourage the renewal of catechesis, which has been going on since before the Second Vatican Council. Preachers, teachers, and catechists can depend on the Catechism as a primary resource.

Show Snippet: "When the books began just at the turn of the 21st century; the rise of the internet, the rise of the smartphone, the rise of on-demand viewing. Access to media and technology is becoming ubiquitous. And it's within this context then that J. K. Rowling starts writing these stories where she's playing off technology and magic, wondering about the moral implications of it all and writing to an audience of children raised in this new world."
